The Right Honorable H. Walpole Secretary of State for the Home Department

The humble petition of George Hobbs a convict registered as No 2653 and now confined on board the "Mutiny" at Bermuda

Sheweth That your petitioner was with three others convicted at Bermuda of murdering with intent to kill and sentenced to transportation for life on 24th March 1831

That previous to such conviction your petitioner had never been charged with the commission of any offence against the laws of the Island, and since conviction the conduct of your petitioner has given complete satisfaction to the Prison Authorities

That your petitioner humbly solicits your Honours earnest attention to the facts of the case which are as follow

At the time of the commission of the offence your petitioner a former convict had been for some time out of custody and being destitute of food or means to procure it was induced by the other prisoners to join them in a peacocking expedition in the premises of Sir H. Killybegs soon after entering which they were surrounded by a number of keepers with dogs, one of your petitioners companions shot one of the dogs, which was returned by the keepers, and the contents of the gun lodging in the left hip, and wounds of the back of your petitioner established him on the ground helpless while week afterwards exchanged between your petitioners companions and the keepers when your petitioner and all his companions were ultimately captured and severely injured by the brutal treatment they experienced from the keepers taking them with the last words of their lives after their capture, and which was only relieved by the timely arrival and remembrance of the police

That your petitioner begs distinctly to affirm that he never fired any shot whatever either at the keepers or their dogs, and that though the first shot was fired by his companions at the dog the keepers were the party that first shot at and wounded any one which shot struck your petitioner as before stated, and that the conduct of the keepers on the occasion was the cause of the affray assuming the serious aspect it afterwards did and your petitioner begs to draw your Honours special attention to the fact that in consequence of your petitioners and all his companions being indisposed they could not contradict any portion of the evidence given by the keepers at the trial but were

That the injuries received by your petitioner on the occasion were such that for many days his life was despaired of, and he now has ever since, and still while he lives suffer severely from the effects thereof

That on passing sentence upon your petitioner the Judge stated that in consequence of the probability of peacocking affairs he should as an example, pass upon all of them the severest sentence the law allowed

That your petitioner is now the sole survivor of the four convicted, ten of whom have died in Prison and the other in Australia

That your petitioner begs to express his sincere conviction for having been in any way connected to a breach of the laws and distinctly to state that distribution from want of money alone induced him to do so, and that on doing so he had not one doubt he believe had his companions the slightest idea of doing any violence whatever to any parties with whom they might come in contact, and Your petitioner humbly prays that inasmuch as no serious injury was done to the keepers by him or his companions your Honours duly considering "That the keepers were the aggressors in the affray. That your petitioner was the party most severely injured in such affray. That in part whatever was taken by your petitioner therein farther than as an helpless spectator and that the severe sentence passed was passed as an example in consequence of the frequency of such offences and therefore much severer than would under other circumstances have been awarded, will under the circumstances (as the necessity of any further punishment for example no longer exists) consider the sufferings endured by your petitioner from the injuries received, during the 7 years that will have been spent by him in Prison and etc on an answer can be received to this appeal, coupled with the disabled state he will ever remain in from the same cause, as sufficient punishment for such share as he had in the matter, and in consideration of the good conduct evinced by your petitioner during such long probation consider such extra suffering, graciously to please to remit to him your petitioner the remainder (such term upon such conditions as your Honours may think necessary under the circumstances for the well being of Society

And your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray &c

Witness my hand
